The New Thomas H. Dudley Elementary School Opens With A Dedication and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Who: Thomas H. Dudley Elementary School
2250 Berwick Street
(Federal Street at Marlton Pike)
Camden, New Jersey

When: Thursday September 17, 2009 at 10:00 a.m.

Background: The dedication of the new Thomas H. Dudley Elementary School will include public officials, parents and the students of Dudley. The building plaque will be unveiled along with the new school mascot, the mythical Phoenix rising from the ashes.

This school replaces a building that dates to the 1920's. It has "state of the art" classrooms and a fully functioning auditorium and cafeteria with energy saving devices throughout.
