

Linda Carter, Duty Officer/Anti Bullying Coordinator

Phone: (856) 966-2000, Ext. 65597

Email: lcarter@camden.k12.nj.us

Linda Carter began her career with Camden City School District in 1998 as an Instructional Assistant. In 2000 she transferred to the Security Department as a School Law Enforcement Officer until 2015. While in uniform, Linda seized the opportunity to work as a Character Specialist for Education Works from 2005 to 2009. In 2006 to 2010 she took on the role as a Behavioral Specialist for Top Rank Behavioral Inc. Linda also served 5 years as a Youth Director for a Non-Profit Organization that service families and community members. In 2015 Linda was promoted to Duty Officer, for the Office of Safety and Security, where she currently serves. In 2018 she became the Camden City School District's Anti Bullying Coordinator. She studied at Camden County College, Psychology and Human Resources. Linda is a Certified Instructor for Handle With Care and holds a Certificates in, Recognizing the Potential Dangerous Student and Gang Awareness. Linda's number one Core Value, is communication and Collaboration. Her focus is to ensure the safety of all students, provide exceptional customer service to families, and build productive lasting relationships with community members and all stakeholders.