Superintendent's 2008-2009 Budget Message

Dr. Bessie LeFra Young
Superintendent of Schools

On Tuesday, April 15, 2008, the Camden City Board of Education will present the district's 2008-2009 budget for your vote. The district will continue to focus on accountability, curriculum development, student achievement and ensuring that the testing process is maintained with impeccable standards. Our primary goals will be to provide safe environments and challenging our students to excel.

The 2008-2009 budget totals $355,052,732.00. The Local Tax Levy, the portion of the budget that we are presenting to you for a vote, totals $7,449,009.00. This means that the portion of your property taxes that are used for school purposes will remain the same as last year. Simply put, there will be No Increase in School Taxes!

Additionally, this year registered voters will elect three (3) candidates to the Board. School Board candidates are listed below in the order that their name will appear on the ballot. Remember, board members approve policies and make decisions that affect the children of Camden!

Don't forget to Vote on April 15th!
